

Welcome to Bally Spring Inn!

If you are planning a holiday gathering, company party, business retreat, or any event in the Philadelphia and Lehigh Valley area, then consider the Bally Spring Inn.

The Inn is situated on a Revolutionary era farm located in Historic Berks county Pennsylvania, centrally located in the tri-county area. The main banquet hall is in an Amish restored 19th century barn, overlooking a rolling meadow leading to the Perkiomen creek which meanders through the property. During your stay, you can relax with a bonfire in the meadow, enjoy cocktail hour on our Creekside patio, and have a morning breakfast in our lodge.

The lodge, attached to the original 18th century farmhouse, doubles as a meeting space that can accommodate up to 100 attendees. Our eighteen beautiful hotel rooms are scattered throughout the main barn, carriage house and farm house. The rooms all have their own unique features including some with Jacuzzi tubs and gas fireplaces. The property even boasts a private airport!

Our award-winning Chef will keep your guests well satisfied throughout their stay with our seasonal menu that can be customized to suite your tastes and diet.

We invite you to visit the Bally Spring Inn and please feel free to browse our many reviews. We take personal pride in making each event, whether it be a business retreat, holiday party, or anniversary, a unique experience. Our experienced and friendly staff takes great pride in creating a relaxing and unique experience for each and every group we host. Come to the Bally Spring Inn and you will be able to plan a truly relaxing and peaceful country get away.
