

Pottstown Dance Theatre Has Mega-Plans Including the Olympics

The Pottstown Dance Theatre has plans up until 2024 despite a few setbacks from the global pandemic. Dancers have not missed a beat and went to remote learning allowing for solid training regardless of a quarantine. There will be a "Zoom Haunted Dance Party" on Oct. 3 at 6pm to learn the original "Thriller" choreography, "The Time Warp", and fun cardio games to Halloween classic tunes. On Oct. 10 New York film actor and director, Mark Stolzenberg, will teach "Acting for Film" on Zoom. THEATER AND ACTING STUDENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND!

play an original piece he composed for the event. The work was partially funded by the PA Council on the Arts and was also cited for excellence by Senator Bob Mensch.

In July, the students get international experience when a few select dancers will travel to Athens, Greece to perform in an International Dance Festival at the sight of the original Greek Olympics. January of 2022 will bring the performers to Manhattan to perform at the world renown venue in Carnegie Hall; and the dream of performing in Paris, France will come into fruition in 2024 when the dancers travel there to perform for those Summer Olympic Games.

The studio is well known for doing an award winning "Nutcracker" annually at the Hill School Center for the Arts. This year, the dancers will perform various ethnic dances in "Christmas Around the World" that is scheduled to be aired mid-December on PCTV. Other regional stations have expressed interest in the showcase as well, including Radnor and Norristown.

In June of 2021, the Repertory Ensemble will perform "Jazzerella" at an outdoor amphitheater and professional composer and pianist Jeff Nations will
