BUSINESS PROFILE

Arcadia at Limerick Pointe: Not Your Typical Senior Living

"As human beings we all age, but we don't all walk the same path. Our bodies, minds and spirits don't all grow, act or age the same way. And yet there are certain fundamental needs we all share. The basics such as food, water, sleep, warmth. Safety and security. In varying degrees, we all need love, friendship, intimacy...personal esteem and accomplishment." Does this sound familiar? It should – right out of Chapter One, "Maslow's Hierarchy" of needs.

When we talk about senior living, images that come to mind might be starkly clinical. Whitewashed hallways, linoleum floors. Flickering fluorescent lighting. Mass-produced food served on trays. Scowling personnel desperately avoiding eye contact. Many of us have experienced this – and some of us experience it still.

When did growing into an elder mean we don't need personal esteem or accomplishment? How did we end up expecting the most well-lived of us to merely survive our golden years, instead of THRIVE in them?

As a local, family-run organization who's developed senior living communities for over 30 years, it's our mission to dispel the image of senior living being an unenjoyable place we go when health declines. We actively reject the myth that as we age, we lose value... and we are bringing together the 2,000+ seniors right here in Limerick to show the world that our collective brilliance, creativity, experience and wisdom has value beyond measure. Not just for society, but for ourselves. We are the Age Positive movement – because Arcadia is not your typical senior living.
