HISTORY OF THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY CHAMBER

The actual charter of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce can trace its roots to the 1912 charter of the original Norristown Chamber of Commerce, later becoming the Montgomery County Board of Trade. Over the course of the 20th century, these Chambers evolved into the Ambler, Conshohocken, Central Montco, King of Prussia, Valley Forge and Wissahickon Valley Chambers of Commerce. We proudly welcome over 400 companies and 1500 stakeholders in southeastern Pennsylvania.

On Sunday, August 20, 2000, after years of planning and an entire year of shoring up and bracing the structure, the King of Prussia Inn was moved to land donated by PECO Energy Company. It was one of the most successful engineering efforts in Pennsylvania's history, winning the 2004 National Legacy Award for successful relocation and restoration. Today, it serves as the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce's headquarters.
